

Civic Epistemologies project - Final Conference in Berlin

2015/10/19

The final conference of Civic Epistemologies project will be held between November 11 and 13, 2015, in the building of Berlin-based Hamburger Bahnhof Museum.

A large promotional graphic for the Civic Epistemologies Final Conference. It features the project logo on the left, the European Union flag in the center, and a large, stylized quill on the right. The text below the logo and flag reads: 'Civic Epistemologies Final Conference', 'Digital Heritage and Innovation, Engagement and Identity', 'Berlin, Hamburger Bahnhof', '12-13 November 2015'. At the bottom, it provides the website 'www.civic-epistemologies.eu', the Twitter handle '@citizen_CH', and the Facebook page 'facebook.com/civic.epistemologies'. A blue brushstroke connects the logo to the quill.

CIVIC EPISTEMOLOGIES

This project has received funding from the European Union's Seventh Framework Programme for research, technological development and demonstration under grant agreement n° 632694

Civic Epistemologies Final Conference

Digital Heritage and Innovation, Engagement and Identity

Berlin, Hamburger Bahnhof

12-13 November 2015

www.civic-epistemologies.eu, @citizen_CH, facebook.com/civic.epistemologies

[1]

The final conference of Civic Epistemologies project will be held between November 11 and 13, 2015, in the building of Berlin-based Hamburger Bahnhof Museum.

The first day of the conference will be devoted to a closed plenary session to be attended by participants of the project and this will be the official closure of the project. The aim of the event is to illustrate and promote the Roadmap and to present results from the project.

Civic Epistemologies project - Final Conference in Berlin

Published on Országos Széchényi Könyvtár (<https://oszk.hu>)

National Széchényi Library will be represented at the conference by Miklós Lenday, director of the Directorate of E-services, István Moldován, department head of the Department of Electronic Library Services and by József Uri-Kovács, staff member of the Department of Electronic Library Services.

The conference to be held on November 12 and 13 in Berlin is open to everyone. The event targets a wide audience, including policy makers, cultural managers and curators, association of citizens, representatives of the educational sector, creative and cultural enterprises. Main issues on the agenda will be digital heritage and related innovation efforts as well as vocation and identity. The final version of Roadmap will also be presented to the public.

Read more about the conference in English:

<http://www.civic-epistemologies.eu/activities/final-conference-in-berlin/> [2]

2015/10/19 - 15:25

Source URL: <https://oszk.hu/en/news/civic-epistemologies-project-final-conference-berlin>

Links:

[1] https://oszk.hu/sites/default/files/CE_Final%20Conference_banner.png

[2] <http://www.civic-epistemologies.eu/activities/final-conference-in-berlin/>

[3] <https://oszk.hu/en/category/foszotar-es-pozicionalo/hirek>