

The fate of old books

2016/02/11

On March 2, 2016 National Széchényi Library will hold a roundtable discussion with the participation of collectors, antiquarians and bibliographers. The discussion will focus on topics such as: What were the characteristics of Petrik's bibliography, what was the Hungarian national bibliography like between 1701 and 1920? How the science historical status of retrospective national bibliography can be described? We are looking forward to seeing you at the discussion!

Initiated by the Working Committee on Book History of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences and the Editorial Board of Magyar Könyvszemle (Hungarian Book Review), National Széchényi Library will hold a roundtable discussion on old books with the participation of collectors, antiquarians and bibliographers on March 2, 2016, at 3 p.m., in the Ceremonial Hall of the Library on Floor 6.

The fate of old books

Published on Országos Széchényi Könyvtár (<https://oszk.hu>)

Participants of the discussion will be:

Lajos Borda (Borda Antique Books),
János Heltai (National Széchényi Library),
Gabriella H. Hubert (National Lutheran Library),
Judit P. Vásárhelyi (National Széchényi Library),
Sz. Nagy László (Pázmány Péter Catholic University) and Judit V. Ecsedy (National Széchényi Library).

Moderator: István Monok (Library and Information Centre of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences)

Topics of discussion:

- The concept of bibliographic unit;
- Petrik's bibliography, an overview of Hungarian national bibliography between 1701 and 1920;
- The science historical status of retrospective national bibliography.

Keynote remarks by Lajos Borda [1]

2016/02/21 - 14:38

Source URL: <https://oszk.hu/en/events/fate-old-books>

Links:

[1] <https://oszk.hu/sites/default/files/borda-lajos-konyveszeti-gondolatok.pdf>

[2] <https://oszk.hu/en/category/foszotar-es-pozicionalo/hirek>

[3] <https://oszk.hu/en/category/foszotar-es-pozicionalo/rendezvenyek>