In Plural – exhibition in Székesfehérvár

2016/04/11

An exhibition entitled “In Plural – Everyday Life of World War I and the Reality of Wartime Days” will be opened in Székesfehérvár at 5 p.m. on April 14, 2016. The exhibition was organized jointly by the Hungarian National Museum and National Széchényi Library.

A unique exhibition, organized in cooperation with and professionally supported by National Széchényi Library, will be opened by the Hungarian National Museum and co-organizer NSZL in Székesfehérvár. The exhibition entitled In Plural [1] will be opened at 5 p.m. on April 14, 2016.

Experts cooperating in the making of the exhibition were historian Iván Bertényi, Jr. and literary historian László Boka, Director of Research and Academic Affairs at National Széchényi Library. The exhibition, to be open for five days, will show several elements which could be seen at our recently closed exhibition entitled Propaganda in World War I [2].
