Conference of the National Association of Public Collections

2017/03/13

A two-day conference of museum directors was held recently in Visegrád, Northern Hungary. László Boka, Deputy Director-General and Director of Research and Academic Affairs of National Széchényi Library also delivered a lecture at the conference.

The National Association of Public Collections [1] held a two-day conference in Visegrád in March 2017. The main theme of the event was the relationship between museums and identity. National Széchényi Library was represented by Dr. László Boka, Deputy Director-General and Director of Research and Academic Affairs, who delivered a lecture entitled Archive, Identity and Spectrum Widening. Museum functions of NSZL.

2017/03/13 - 10:32

Source URL: https://oszk.hu/en/news/conference-national-association-public-collections

Links:
[1] http://www.oksz.eu/
[2] https://oszk.hu/en/category/foszotar-es-pozicionalo/hirek