[2]You can get an insight into the workshop secrets of composing motion picture soundtracks via interesting documents selected from the bequest, from an official invitation letter, through illustrated “storyboards” and sketches, right to the “finished compositions”. Visitors wishing to try their musical memory can play a quiz game, in which they have to identify matching pairs of the best known pieces of theme music composed by Zsolt Pethő and cartoon titles.

After its closure in September, the exhibition will be moved to Baja-based István Türr Museum, where it is scheduled to be open from Fall 2017.
