The Ambassador of Spain visited our Library

2018/07/27

On July 25, 2018, the Ambassador of Spain paid an official visit to NSZL where she looked at the treasures of the Hungarian national library.

Anunciada Fernández de Córdova, Ambassador of Spain to Hungary, who was appointed to her current post in May 2018, paid an official introductory visit to National Széchényi Library on July 25. The Ambassador was received by Director-General of NSZL Dr. László Tüske in his office. During her visit, Anunciada Fernández de Córdova had a look at some of the valuable documents of our Manuscript Collection and the Collection of Early Printed Books. Among others, she was shown book rarities and Spanish-language manuscripts from the Early Modern Age.
