Handing over of evangelical codices

2018/11/10

In 1950, fourteen codices belonging to the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Hungary were deposited in National Széchényi Library. On Sunday November 11, 2018, the volumes will ceremoniously be returned to the property of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Part of the volumes originating from the Radvánszky library of Sajókaza was kept by National Széchényi Library as a deposit from 1950 until 2018. The codices will ceremoniously be returned to the National Lutheran Collection [1] by Dr. László Tüske, Director-general of National Széchényi Library on November 11, 2018.

Venue: Lutheran Church in Deák Square
Date: Sunday November 11, 2018, 3 p.m.

On behalf of both institutions, we are looking forward to seeing you at the ceremony.
