The Library will be closed but, to meet visitor demand, our exhibitions entitled The Corvina Library and the Buda Workshop [2] and Eternally Júlia – Faces and Question Marks [3] will be open between December 27 and 29, 2018. The exhibitions can be visited from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. on each of these days. Tickets can be purchased daily until 17.30. There will be no guided tours or museum education sessions during the winter holidays.

The rest of the Library spaces including the reading rooms, the buffet and the cloakroom can be used the last time this year on Saturday December 22, 2018, and they will be open again on Wednesday January 2, 2019. During the winter closure of NSZL, our copying service [4] and the Birthday Package service will not be available.

The service schedule of the Express Elevator connecting Palota Street with the Library is available on the Opening hours [5] page.

We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!
