Digitization of OSZK híradó (NSZL Chronicle) has finally been completed. Online version of the periodical, aimed at processing and preserving the history of National Széchényi Library, can be accessed in the Electronic Periodicals Archive & Database (Hungarian abbreviation: EPA).

The publication is an unmatched, unique imprint of the history of National Széchényi Library between 1958 and 2001. The periodical material of 44 volumes documents personal changes in NSZL, cultural programs, problems, international travels, the activity of the Library Choir, professional changes and innovation efforts, the introduction of library systems and, in addition to a plethora of curiosities, the greatest ever change in the life of NSZL: moving from Múzeum Boulevard to Wing “F” of Buda Royal Palace.

Editors-in-Chief of NSZL Chronicle included Viktor Horváth, Mária Németh, Kálmán Bor and Gyula Batári.

All the 44 volumes of OSZK híradó (NSZL Chronicle) [1] published between 1958 and 2001 can be accessed in the Electronic Periodicals Archive & Database.

We wish you a pleasant reading and browsing.
