Release of National Széchényi Library

2020/03/10

In view of the international and Hungarian virus situation, National Széchényi Library suspended organizing guided group tours of exhibitions, will not welcome visitor groups, or hold public and professional events after March 10, 2020.

In view of the international and Hungarian virus situation, National Széchényi Library suspended organizing guided group tours of exhibitions, will not welcome visitor groups, or hold public and professional events after March 10, 2020.

The reading rooms and exhibitions of National Széchényi Library can still be visited by private individuals.

NSZL kindly asks its visitors and readers to follow and embrace the guidelines and regulations of the competent authorities to avoid any risk of viral infection.

Thank you for your patience and understanding.
