

Copying service renewed

2022/10/28

Our copying service has been upgraded to better meet the needs of our users.

[1]

In recent months, we have invested considerable energy in modernising our library services to ensure the continued renewal of the national library. As part of this process, we have upgraded our photocopying service to better meet the needs of our users.

From 2 November 2022, you will be able to submit your requests for digital copies of written and photographic documents from the General Collection and Special Collections (Manuscript Collection, Early Printed Book Collection, Theatre History and Music Collection, Map, Poster and Small Print
