

Poetry in Stone. Images of Classical Greece by Robert McCabe

2023/11/11 - 2024/01/31

From 11 November to 31 January 2024, the National Széchényi Library will host an exhibition of works by the American photographer Robert McCabe, organised by the Embassy of Greece, selected from the Collection of Ephorate of Antiquities of the City of Athens.

The poster is divided into two main sections. The left section features a black and white photograph of ancient Greek ruins, with a person standing in the distance near the sea. Overlaid on this image is the text: "Photo exhibition organised by the Embassy of Greece in Budapest at the National Library between 11 November and 31 December 2023". The right section has a dark background with the title "POETRY IN STONE. IMAGES OF CLASSICAL GREECE BY ROBERT MCCABE" in large, yellow, sans-serif capital letters. At the bottom of the poster, there are five logos: the Embassy of Greece in Budapest, the Aegean logo, the word "GREECE" in a box, the Országos Széchényi Könyvtár logo, and the logo of Nicos Lazaridis.

From 11 November 2023, the National Széchényi Library will host an exhibition of works by American photographer Robert McCabe, curated by Sophia Hiniadou Cambanis, organised by the Embassy of Greece and selected from the Collection of Ephorate of Antiquities of the City of Athens.

Temporary exhibition until 31 January 2024

open during the library's opening hours from 10 am to 6 pm (last entry: Tuesday-Thursday 5 pm, Friday-Saturday 6 pm).

Depicting iconic sites in the history of universal human culture, including Athens, the Acropolis, Epidauros, Delphi and other emblematic sites, these black and white photographs capture with admirable vividness the essence of ancient Hellenic culture, art and history. American photographer Robert McCabe first visited Greece in 1954 and has continued to capture the beauty and history of the country ever since. His work has been featured in numerous exhibitions and publications worldwide.

The Hungarian National Library, as a strategic cultural institution, is committed to the preservation of the Hungarian and universal cultural heritage and to the presentation and dissemination of its values, and is therefore delighted to cooperate – not for the first time – with the Embassy of Greece in the implementation of this cultural mission.

The photographer dedicates the pictures to the memory of his friend, the great Hungarian philhellénist Edmond Solymosy.
