During the visit, a small-scale professional meeting took place. Zoltán Lewalt-Jezierski briefly presented the Library’s wide-ranging activities, followed by Dóra Kőszegi, staff member of the Legal Deposit and Publication Identifier Management Department, who gave an overview of the legal deposit system and its operation at the National Széchényi Library. As part of the programme, Dániel Görög, staff member of the Digital Preservation Department, delivered a presentation on preservation processes and developments.

In the second part of the visit, the guests took part in a library tour led by Zsófia Szádeczky-Kardoss, staff member of the Collection Development and Registration Department. The tour included a visit to the Library’s Digitalization Centre, where Gábor Klinger, Deputy Head of the Digital Preservation Department, provided a detailed overview of the unit’s achievements and operations.

The meeting took place in a friendly, open, and constructive atmosphere. Both parties expressed their intention to deepen cooperation in the future through concrete professional projects. The members of the Chinese delegation expressed their gratitude for the warm welcome and the meaningful professional programme.

Himnusz
„Nemzeti himnuszunk igazában a szabadság himnusza.
Káromlás szolgaszívvel énekelni."
„Szabadság, itt hordozta hős zászlaidat az Ifjuság!
s a sírt, melyből nép lép ki, már
ámulva nézte a világ.
[...]
De csak szájon csókol a perc
s jó remény mámlja a jajt:
Nemz' fiaból tovább nem leszünk!
Éc. Isten áldd meg a magyart!"
„Azt a hazát, melyről a Szózat szeg, el nem veheti, és meg nem csonkíthatja senki. Az visszavonhatatlanul hozzánk tartozik. Magunkban hordozzuk éppen azért, mert ahogy ő hordot bennünket:
átfúlá és benne vagyunk, akik vagyunk.
„Ezt [Nemzeti dal] az
